TOBIN MAKES APPOINTMENTS TO RURAL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX (Monday, Dec. 31, 2014) – Speaker Andy Tobin made two appointments to the Arizona Rural Business Development Advisory Council (RBDAC) for the Arizona House of Representatives: Jaime Chamberlain and Robert Corbell.

“I know Chamberlain and Corbell will serve the Council and the people of Arizona with distinction,” said Speaker Tobin. “The rural community, especially agriculture and mining, will benefit greatly from the experience and commitment these two individuals bring to the table.”

Greenlee County Supervisor Robert Corbell said, “I am honored to be appointed by Speaker Tobin, and I look forward to working with my fellow council members to increase commerce in Greenlee County and across our state, particularly in the ranching and mining sectors.”

Jamie Chamberlain said, “I am thankful that Speaker Tobin has selected me to sit on the Council, and I look forward to using my four decades of commerce experience, particularly involving trade with Mexico, to benefit Santa Cruz County and all of Arizona.”

RBDAC advises the Arizona Commerce Authority Board about rural business development strategies. The Council is comprised of a business representative from each Arizona county, one member representing Arizona’s tribal nations, and the Arizona Commerce Authority CEO.
